Most Reverend Jeffrey R. Haines, Auxiliary Bishop of Milwaukee was named such by Pope Francis on January 25, 2017. He was three times elected Moderator of the Archdiocesan Council of Priests of The Archdiocese of Milwaukee, and currently serves as Rector of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Milwaukee. He is respected by fellow clergy and Parishioners alike for his pastoral and leadership skills.

Happy New Year!

Welcome to the New Year! Wishing you happiness, good health and peace throughout January and the rest of 2019!

We welcome you to join us for some of our January programs!

Tom Burgermeister: MAGICIAN

Thursday, January 10

7:00 PM - The Astor Room

This new year brings new acts! Join us in welcoming magician Tom Burgermeister who has been performing and entertaining throughout the Midwest with his devious delusions and mystery magic for over 30 years!

PATTY & CRAIG SIEMSEN-FOLK DUO

Thursday, January 17

7:00 PM - The Astor Room

Please join us for a fun and lively evening of folk music with Patty and Craig Siemsen. Described as genuinely talented with classic folk voices, Patty & Craig are known for their gorgeous harmonies, impeccable musicianship, playful stage humor, and jewel-like original songs. Patty says about performing, “I try for magic – nothing less ... for the place that opens hearts and will move an audience to tears or smiles.”

Mitchel Park Domes

Wednesday, January 2 – 12:30 PM

Join us as we travel through holidays past, present, and yet to come as they follow the journey of Ebenezer Scrooge in a floral show. In this visual retelling of A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens, you will see scenes inspired by each of the ghosts who visit Ebenezer Scrooge. The cost will be $5 per person.

Jewish Museum

Wednesday, January 9 – 12:00 Noon

Come join us for a docent led tour of the Blacklist exhibit at the Jewish Museum. The Blacklist exhibit discusses the impact of hollywood and the red scare. Admission is $5 per person.
